Case No.:

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COLLECTIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, JASON TUCKER (hereinafter referred to as “Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, BROWN, LLC and THE ORLANDO FIRM, P.C., hereby brings this Collective Action Complaint against Defendant JCB TRANSPORTATION, INC. (“Defendant JCB”) and Defendant JAMES BYNUM (“Defendant Bynum”) (collectively, “Defendants”), and alleges of his own knowledge and conduct and upon information and belief as to all other matters, as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Plaintiff brings this collective action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), individually and on behalf of all other similarly situated persons employed by Defendant JCB Transportation, Inc. and Defendant James Bynum arising from Defendants' willful violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA"), 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq.

2. Defendants maintained a common policy of failing to pay hourly-paid employees at time-and-a-half of their regular rate for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek, in violation of the FLSA's overtime provisions. See 29 U.S.C. § 207(a)(1).

3. To the extent Defendants paid hourly-paid employees for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek, such pay was at the same rate of pay they received for non-overtime hours.

4. Plaintiff asserts the foregoing FLSA claim not only individually, but also on a representative basis pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) on behalf of a putative "FLSA Collective" defined as:

Any individual who worked for Defendants as an hourly-paid employee and/or independent contractor at any time within the three (3) years preceding the filing of this action and the date of judgment.

5. Plaintiff seeks judgment against Defendants for actual and liquidated damages on behalf of himself and the putative FLSA Collective, plus costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

39.At all times material hereto, Plaintiff was compensated on an hourly basis.

46.Defendants willfully violated the FLSA.

47.Defendants' wrongful acts and/or omissions/commissions, as alleged herein, have not been exercised in good faith or in conformity with and in reliance on any written administrative regulation, order, ruling,

FLSA COLLECTIVE ALLEGATIONS

48. The foregoing paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though the same were fully set forth at length herein.

49. This action is brought as a collective action to recover unpaid compensation and overtime compensation, liquidated damages, unlawfully withheld wages, statutory penalties, and damages owed to Plaintiff and all similarly situated current and former hourly-paid employees of Defendants.

50. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) of the FLSA, Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of a putative FLSA Collective defined as:

Any individual who worked for Defendants as an hourly-paid, non-exempt worker at any time within the three (3) years preceding the filing of this action and the date of judgment (“FLSA Collective”).

51. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend this definition.

52. Plaintiff contends that he and FLSA Collective members were denied compensation and overtime compensation due to Defendants’ policy and practice of failing to pay hourly-paid employees at time-and-a-half of their regular rate for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek.

53. Plaintiff estimates that there are in excess of fifteen (15) putative FLSA Collective members or persons in positions with substantially similar job duties who are either working or worked for Defendants and were unlawfully denied overtime compensation at 1.5 times their “regular rate” of pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek and systemically shorted compensation and overtime compensation as a result of the unlawful practices described above. The precise number of employees can easily be ascertained by Defendants. These employees can be identified and located using Defendants’ payroll and personnel records. FLSA Collective Members may be informed of the pendency of this Collective Action by direct mail, e-mail, text message, and/or publication.

54. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), this action is properly maintained as a collective action because the FLSA Collective members are similarly-situated. Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective members were similarly denied overtime compensation at 1.5 times their regular rate of pay as a result of Defendants’ policy of failing to pay hourly-paid employees at time-and-a-half of their regular rate for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek, had the same or similar job classifications and job duties, and were subject to the same uniform policies and practices.

55. Plaintiff will request the Court to authorize notice to all current and former similarly-situated employees employed by Defendants, informing them to the pendency of this action and their right to “opt-in” to this lawsuit pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), for the purpose of seeking unpaid compensation, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages under the FLSA.

56. As a result of Defendants’ common policies and practices, Defendants failed to pay members of the putative FLSA Collective, including Plaintiff, the federally mandated overtime rate of 1.5 times their regular rate for all hours worked over forty (40) in a workweek.

COUNT I
FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT
29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq.
FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME

(Brought Individually and on a Collective Basis Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b))

57. The foregoing paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though the same were fully set forth at length herein.

58. Pursuant to Section 206(b) of the FLSA, employees must be compensated for every hour worked in a workweek.

59.Moreover, under Section 207(a)(1) of the FLSA, employees must be paid overtime equal to 1.5 times the employee's regular rate of pay, for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week.

60.In most workweek, Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective members worked over forty (40) hours.

61.Plastic and the FLSA Collective members did not receive any form of premium overtime compensation for the hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek.

62.In workweeks in which Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective members worked in excess of forty (40) hours, Defendants failed to compensate them at the federally mandated rate of 1.5 times each employee's regular hourly wage. See 29 U.S.C. § 207.

63.Plastic and the FLSA Collective members were not covered by the "motor carrier" exemption to the FLSA because they worked as drivers, driver's helpers, loaders or mechanics affecting the safety of operation of motor vehicles weighing 10,000 pounds or less in transportation on public highways in interstate or foreign commerce, such as Defendants' pick-up trucks.

64.Defendants knew or acted with reckless disregard as to whether putative FLSA Collective members' were entitled to overtime compensation for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a workweek, and Defendants were on notice of the FLSA's requirements at all relevant times.

65. Accordingly, Defendants' conduct constitutes a willful violation of the FLSA, within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a). Because Defendants willfully violated the FLSA, a three-year statute of limitations applies to such violations.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the FLSA Collective members, respectfully requests that this Court grant the following relief against Defendants:

- A. Certifying this case as a collective action in accordance with 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) with respect to the FLSA claims set forth herein;
- B. Ordering Defendants to disclose in computer format, or in print if no computer readable format is available, the names and addresses of all FLSA Collective members, and permitting Plaintiff to send notice of this action to all those similarly situated individuals, including the publishing of notice in a manner that is reasonably calculated to apprise the collective members of their rights by law to join and participate in this lawsuit;

- C. Designating Plaintiff as the representative of the FLSA Collective members and undersigned counsel for the same;
- D. Finding that Defendants willfully violated the FLSA and the Department of Labor's attendant regulations as cited therein;
- E. Granting judgment in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendants and awarding Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective the full amount of compensatory damages and liquidated damages available by law;
- F. Awarding reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by Plaintiff in filing this action as provided by statute;
- G. Granting an incentive award for the Lead Plaintiff for serving as representative of the FLSA Collective members in this action;
- H. Awarding pre- and post-judgment interest to Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective members on these damages; and
- I. Awarding such other and further relief as this Court deems appropriate.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff Christopher Stebbins, individually and on behalf of all other FLSA Collective members, by and though his attorneys, hereby demands a trial by jury pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the court rules and statutes made and provided with respect to the above-entitled claims.
